Mathieu Fabre, 47, started his career in 1995 at Aon, the world leader in insurance and reinsurance brokerage, as an Internal Auditor in Madrid.

In 1997, he joined Aurel BGC, an investment services provider, as a Financial Advisor for stock market transactions, before moving on to DC Advisory Partners in 2000, a firm specialized in mergers & acquisitions and financial services consulting, where he held the position of Mergers & Acquisitions Manager. In 2003, he joined Korian-Medica as a Financial Controller before being appointed Chief Financial Officer in 2009. Mathieu Fabre then moved to the Groupe Colisée as Finance Officer in 2015, and later to MédiPôle Partenaires, a private hospitalization group where he held the position of Chief Financial Officer from 2016 to 2017.

Mathieu Fabre holds a Master's degree in International Affairs and Relations from Université Paris-Dauphine and a Licenciatura degree from Universidad Complutense in Madrid.

"I would like to thank Laurent Thibeau for his work over the years at the DomusVi Group and to wish him all the best in his new activities. I am delighted to welcome Mathieu Fabre, who has an excellent understanding of our business sector and whose financial expertise and experience in mergers & acquisitions are a real asset in pursuing our growth," Aymar Hénin, CEO of the DomusVi Group, said for the occasion.

"I am delighted to join the DomusVi Group, to use my experience and my expertise in the service of a group that is among the leaders in its market today and to be able to take part in its dynamic growth in France and abroad," added Mathieu Fabre, Financial Group VP of the DomusVi Group.
